Talent Programme Mechanic

Great Britain Wheelchair Rugby

TALENT PROGRAMME MECHANIC

ROLE DESCRIPTION

Role: Talent Programme Mechanic

Purpose: To provide mechanical support at Talent Programme camps and regional sessions, thus, supporting the delivery of a successful Talent Programme. This role is open to a role share which will allow flexibility to support the required sessions.

Duties:

- Deliver appropriate mechanical support at Talent Programme camps and regional sessions.
- Report to the Talent Programme Manager with information regarding the players chair maintenance.
- A commitment to working in accordance with the safeguarding practises of Great Britain Wheelchair Rugby (includes attending the appropriate training if required)

Points to consider:

The purpose of this role description is to indicate the general level of duties and responsibility of the post. The detailed duties may vary from time to time without altering the overall job role.

Those without the appropriate skills/experience may be considered but will be trained prior to taking responsibility.

Special Conditions:

Be familiar with, and apply with full vigour, GBWR policies and procedures, including but not limited to the following:

- Equality Policy
- Data Protection Policy
- Safeguarding Policy
- Health & Safety Policy
- Harassment & Bullying Policy
- Grievance Policy

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

This is voluntary position. For weekend camps and competition (national/international), accommodation and meals will also be arranged, as is the case with the other GBWR staff and players.

Due to the nature of the position it is important that applicants are aware weekend work will be required. Depending on the number of successful applicants the number of days will vary. However, under normal circumstances the role should not exceed 5 days per month.

GBWR shall reimburse reasonable expenses properly and necessarily incurred by you in the course of undertaking your voluntary role, to include travel expenses, subject to the production of evidence of your expenses in the form required by GBWR.

In relation to travel expenses, GBWR will reimburse reasonable travel expenses incurred in delivery of the role, in accordance with the terms of its expenses policy, as amended from time to time. This can include standard class rail tickets and a mileage rate.

GBWR reserves the right to refuse to reimburse expenses which cannot be considered reasonable or for which no satisfactory evidence has been produced.
